PLANNING, WORKING, COOPERATING FOR THE STEADY GROWTH OF APPOMATTOX

NO WONDER SO MANY FRIENDS COME FROM GREAT DISTANCES TO DO BUSINESS IN APPOMATTOX.

June is a wonderful month in Central Virginia. The growing season is at its peak. Wheat is ripe. Tobacco plants have started growing. Corn is growing taller every day. Gardens are in harvest . . . there is an atmosphere of bustle and enterprise. Nothing is finer than to see growing crops and a green countryside Pastures looking lush after generous rains . . . cattle on hundreds of hills . . . farm machinery tilling the soil . . .

It is wonderful to be in the position of offering business service to a trade area and working with the farmer, the home owner, the worker, for the upbuilding of the community. Here in Appomattox we like to say that we are "A Growing Town" because we have so much to offer the buying public. The firms listed on this page are typical of those rendering business service and inviting you to do business in Appomattox. We think we have just the facilities you need and that you just can't beat the service you will find here. That's the way we want it, and we are constantly trying to find additional ways we can be of service.

Why not accept this cordial invitation — Trade in Appomattox! Do your business in Appomattox! Buy, sell, find jobs in Appomattox! Grow with us so that our progressive community will be in the forefront of the effort to Make America Strong because it is Strong at the Grassroots!

Remember: Every Day is Trading in Appomattox!

What To See At Old Appomattox Court House —

McLean House. In the parlor of the home of Wilmer McLean, now restored, Gens. Robert E. Lee and Ulysses S. Grant signed the Peace ending the Civil War, April 9, 1865.

National Park Service Museum. Located in the restored Hix Tavern. Contains original flag of truce and many historical relics. Also the famous Guillaume oil painting of Surrender Scene.

Old County Jail. Original brick jail still standing in old court house circle.

Restored Meeks-Plunkett House, Peers House, and other historic buildings.

Site of the "Apple Tree." Where Lee rested awaiting meeting with Grant.

Original Tree under which Lee stood to bid farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia.

Gravesite of the famous minstrel, Joe Sweeney, just beyond Memorial Bridge over Appomattox River.

Confederate Cemetary, site of Lee's headquarters, North Carolina Monument and other historic spots.
